Communal Facilities

There is also a bedroom with en-suite facilities available for overnight guests. We understand this is charged at a competitive nightly rate and managed by the House Manager. There are also laundry facilities.

Montgomery Court is known for its impressive courtyard garden, with a shaped lawn, well-stocked perimeter borders, and a central seating area. There is also a garden at the rear of the development. Regular social activities include: Monday morning coffee, every Tuesday keep fit, every Thursday afternoon tea, monthly social event, and the first Wednesday of the month crafty chatter. New residents are accepted from 60 years of age. Both cats and dogs are generally accepted (subject to the terms of the lease and the landlord's permission).

Visitor Parking

We understand that within the development there are parking facilities, however, this is arranged by Firstport and the House Manager. Our understanding is that spaces are allocated as they become available and no longer needed by the previous occupant. VISITOR PARKING: There are a few parking spaces reserved specifically for visitors.
