2, Oakdene Crescent, Hatton Station, Warwick

Price Guide £415,000

This much improved, four-bedroom detached family house briefly affords: Entrance hall, cloakroom, two living room, excellent open plan breakfast kitchen/diner/family room, utility room, en-suite shower to main bedroom, additional modern family bathroom, replacement double glazing throughout, gardens to the front and rear with a driveway providing parking as well as access to an adjoining carport and garage. Energy rating D.

Location

Oakdene Crescent is a cul-de-sac of similar detached family homes near Hatton Station, making it ideal for regular rail users and commuters. The Grand Union Canal is also nearby and provides pleasant walks along the towpath. Hatton's convenient access to the A46 and M40 also makes it suitable for major road links to neighbouring towns and centres, as well as the Midland motorway network. Close to Hatton itself, there is a popular public house and eatery on Birmingham Road, the Hatton Arms.
