Set within the peaceful Broome Court development, this beautifully presented two bedroom ground floor apartment comes with a 968 year lease and offers a warm, modern living space just moments from Bracknell town centre and the mainline station. The property has been thoughtfully maintained, with a series of upgrades completed over the past four years including an upgraded boiler, upgraded windows, a newly fitted electrical distribution board with a valid EICR certificate, an integrated modern kitchen, and a refurbished bathroom.

The living room is bright and welcoming, with a comfortable layout that easily zones for relaxing and dining. Soft natural light and clean décor create a homely atmosphere that instantly feels settled. The adjoining dining area offers a practical everyday space, enhanced by contemporary lighting.

The separate integrated kitchen is smartly finished with modern cabinetry, tiled splashbacks and generous worktop space. It hosts a full range of integrated appliances including a washer/dryer, oven, induction hob, extractor fan and fridge/freezer — ideal for convenient day-to-day living.

The recently refurbished bathroom continues the same clean, modern feel with neutral tiling and a well-kept suite.

Both bedrooms are well-proportioned, with the main bedroom offering a calm, restful setting complete with built-in wardrobes. Bedroom two also benefits from its own wardrobe and is currently arranged as a home office, demonstrating the versatility of the layout for remote working or guest accommodation.

Outside, the development is surrounded by well-maintained communal gardens with mature trees and green open spaces, creating a peaceful setting. The property comes with allocated residents' parking, along with visitor bays adding convenience for owners and visitors.

With its combination of location, presentation, modern upgrades and lifestyle appeal, this is a standout apartment in a popular area.
