Hurlingham Waterfront surprises at every level. From its roof terraces to its central landscaped garden, you'll find an abundance of private spaces designed with your wellbeing in mind. Green spaces to connect with nature and your fellow residents in, and first-class amenities that maximise the views of the river.

Being in nature has significant positive effects on our mental and physical wellbeing. Hurlingham Waterfront aims to harness the restorative power of nature with its re-wilded roofscapes and plentiful verdant design.

With the help of landscape architect Tom Stuart-Smith, Exterior Architecture has created an oasis at the heart of the city in this riverside development in London, with 39,000 square feet of sustainably planted resident-only gardens and green corridors to relax, socialise, and play in.

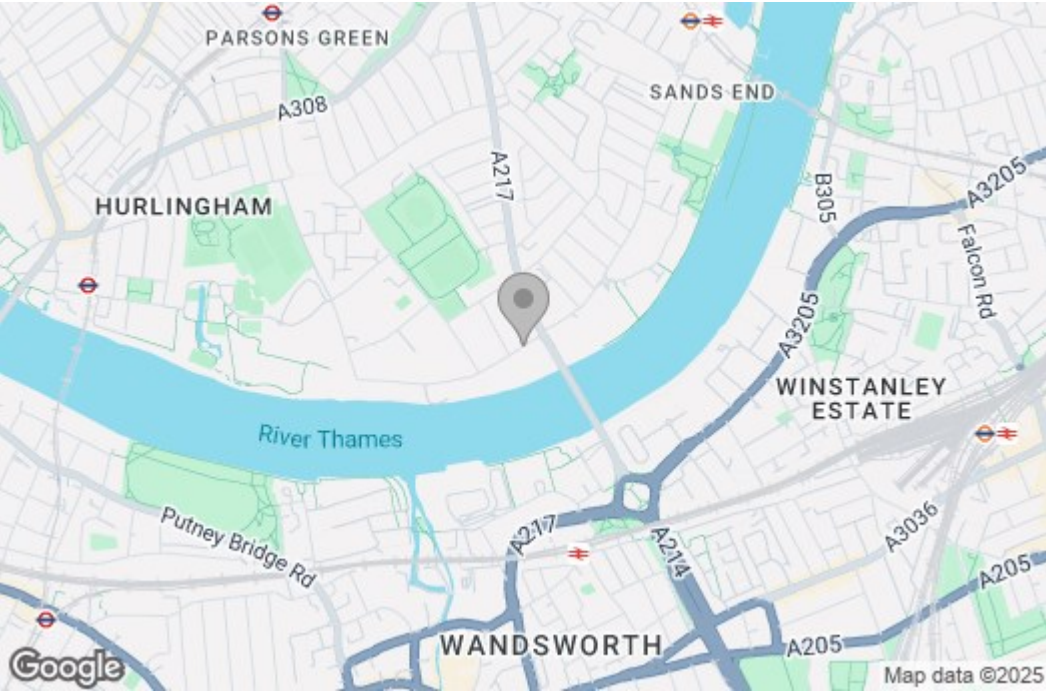

Asking price £750,000
