THE INSIDE STORY

Nestegg Properties are thrilled to offer this absolutely stunning barn conversion for sale nestled away yet in the heart of the village of Enderby. This property is full of charm with beautiful features throughout.

The lounge is lovely, it has an open & inviting feel with the benefit of a dining area, the perfect space for entertaining family and friends. This lounge/diner is a fantastic light and airy space yet with a cosy feel.

The stylish kitchen is the heart of this home and has been created to utilise every inch of space with an array of wall & base units & solid oak work surfaces. There is a ceramic sink with mixer tap, Range Cooker with extractor fan over, integrated dishwasher as well as space for an upright fridge freezer, washing machine and dryer.

There is also a handy breakfast bar area, perfect for informal dining.

From here you also have a lovely oak doorway to the cottage style garden which has a paved patio area and mowed lawn. The garden is south facing so benefits from lots of sunshine, perfect for the summer months ahead! The current owner have added a lovely pergola so you can still enjoy some shade.

Travelling up to the first floor you will find three double bedrooms. The main bedroom is truly delightful with triple aspect windows & bespoke triple built in wardrobes. Both the second & third bedrooms also have fitted cupboards for storage. The family bathroom is a four piece suite with a stunning free standing roll top bath and a separate shower, a Victorian style low level sink and WC. The property is located at the bottom of a gravelled driveway where there is parking for one car. Internal viewings are highly advised to appreciate all this fabulous property has to offer.
