Description

A welcoming entrance hall leads to a substantial 20' x 19'5 living room, filled with natural light from large windows and featuring attractive parquet flooring and a fireplace. Double doors open through to a 15' dining room with views over the garden and direct access outside, creating a wonderful space for entertaining.

The kitchen (15' x 9'7) is well proportioned with good worktop space and access to the rear porch and boiler room. Also on the ground floor is a useful study/bedroom (10'2 x 7'7) and a cloakroom/WC.

Upstairs, the property offers four bedrooms arranged around a central landing. The principal bedroom (20' x 13'5) is particularly spacious and benefits from access to a dressing room and adjacent bathroom. Three further bedrooms provide flexible accommodation for family members or home working, supported by a family shower room and additional storage.

Externally, the property enjoys a large private garden, mainly laid to lawn, providing excellent space for children, outdoor entertaining and recreation. The rear garden also features a patio area and a useful outbuilding/shed. The setting is peaceful and green, surrounded by mature trees.

Location

Harmer Green Lane is located in the desirable village of Digswell, close to Welwyn Garden City and Welwyn North. The area is highly regarded for its excellent schools, village atmosphere and convenient transport links. Welwyn North station is within easy reach, offering fast rail services to London King's Cross and Moorgate, making the property ideal for commuters.
