Located on the popular Thorpe Street, just a short walk from the vibrant amenities of Bishopthorpe Road and within easy reach of York city centre, is this beautifully presented Victorian terraced home, combining a wealth of original character with thoughtful modern improvements.

The property retains a number of attractive period features, including mosaic tiled flooring, quarry tiled flooring, stained glass detailing, cast iron fireplaces and original built-in storage cupboards. Further improvements include bespoke plantation shutters, Victorian-style radiators, an updated two-tone kitchen and a stylishly updated bathroom.

Internally, the property is accessed via an entrance vestibule with mosaic tiled flooring and a stained glass and timber door opening into the hallway. The sitting room features a bay window with bespoke plantation shutters, a feature fireplace with a wood burning stove and stripped timber flooring. To the rear is a further reception room with quarry tiled flooring, original built-in storage, shelving and useful under-stairs storage.

The updated kitchen, with underfloor heating, is fitted with a range of two-tone wall and base units with silestone worktops over, integrated appliances and ample storage. French doors open onto the rear courtyard.

To the first floor are two double bedrooms, both with cast iron fireplaces and original storage cupboards, together with an updated three-piece bathroom. The second floor provides a superb third bedroom with large windows at the front and rear and an en-suite shower room.

Externally, the property has a walled forecourt with ornate cast iron railings. To the rear is a private courtyard garden with timber decking and a deep timber shed providing excellent storage, together with side access to the gated alley.
