Perfectly located in Holgate, just a 10-minute walk from York railway station and the city centre's leading attractions, The New Holgate Hotel comprises two former Grade II listed garden fronted Victorian townhouses. Recently renovated and remodelled to the highest of standards, it now offers 12 beautifully presented bedrooms that combine modern sophistication with historic character.

Arranged over four floors, the individually designed rooms include deluxe doubles, deluxe kings and luxury suites, all styled by award-winning Yorkshire-based interior designers. With this exceptional level of finish, The New Holgate is set to become one of York's most sought-after boutique hotels.

In addition to providing an immediate investment opportunity, the property also presents significant scope for further development. The large gardens and rear car park could lend themselves to the creation of additional accommodation, subject to the necessary planning consents.
