This large extended semi detached house has just undergone a scheme of modernisation and updating which has included the fitting of luxury bathrooms and a large dining kitchen with a complimenting utility room. The open plan living accommodation on the ground floor is complimented by a separate sitting room whilst on the first floor are 4 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms. The former garage is now a large store and there is off street parking to the front as well as a large rear garden.

The village of Huntington is sought after for the exceptional schooling as well as access to both the city centre, Vangarde shopping centre and A64.

A beautifully presented family house at a most realistic price.
