This most wonderful period home is situated close to the heart of York City centre and a wealth of local amenities. Situated a short walk from York Minster, this terraced property has been much improved by the current owners and is well presented throughout.

A hallway leads to two open plan reception rooms with ample space for living and dining, to the rear of the property is a modern fitted kitchen, which leads through to a three piece bathroom suite which has been tastefully decorated. On the first floor is a spacious landing leading to two double bedrooms.

Externally is a south west facing enclosed courtyard style garden. On street resident parking is available.

A superb home which must be viewed to be appreciated.
