

Anne Street
Bishopthorpe Road, York
YO23 1JW

£385,000

Located just off the ever-popular Bishopthorpe Road, this three double bedroom period home enjoys an enviable position close to an array of independent shops, cafés, bakeries, restaurants, and local amenities, while also being within easy reach of York city centre and the train station. Just a short stroll away is Rowntree Park, offering green open space, a café, and scenic riverside walks into the heart of the city, making this a highly desirable location for a range of buyers.

This well-maintained and spacious home retains a wealth of period features and offers versatile accommodation throughout. Upon entering, the entrance hall showcases original tiled mosaic flooring and an attractive archway, setting the tone for the character within. This leads through to two generous reception rooms, both filled with natural light. The living room features a Victorian fireplace, picture rails, cornicing, and an ornate ceiling rose, while the dining room also benefits from a feature fireplace and provides an ideal space for entertaining. The kitchen is positioned to the rear and offers a range of wall and base units, providing ample storage and workspace. The ground floor is completed by a useful WC and understairs storage.

To the first floor, a galleried landing leads to three well-proportioned double bedrooms, one of which features a period fireplace. The accommodation is completed by a shower room and separate WC, offering practicality for family living. There is also potential to extend into the loft, subject to the necessary permissions.

Externally, the property benefits from a low-maintenance walled courtyard, with covered bike storage. A residents' parking scheme is also in place.

A wonderful opportunity to acquire a characterful home in one of York's most sought-after locations, offering both lifestyle and convenience with no onward chain.
