Located in the highly sought-after village of Bishopthorpe, this impressive four-bedroom semi-detached home is positioned on the desirable Lang Road, a tree-lined residential street close to the heart of the village. Combining period character with generous and versatile family living, the property offers an enviable open outlook to the rear, attractive gardens, driveway parking and a detached garage. Close to excellent local amenities and popular eateries, river walks and well-regarded nurseries and primary schools, together with easy access to York city centre and excellent road links including the A64.

A beautiful stained-glass entrance door opens into the welcoming hallway, setting the tone for the character found throughout the property. The bright sitting room is positioned to the front and features a bay window, attractive fireplace and original period detailing including picture rails. To the rear is a generous dining room, centred around a wood-burning stove and opening directly onto the garden, creating a warm and inviting space for family meals and entertaining. The impressive kitchen and dining area provides a wonderful hub for modern family life, with a good range of wall and base units, integrated appliances and views across the garden. An external door provides convenient side access.

The first floor staircase and complimented stainglass window provides access to three well-proportioned bedroom and an office enjoys a particularly lovely outlook over the rear garden and open fields. The principal bedroom is positioned to the front and benefiting from a statement bay window. All served by the generous family bathroom with separate shower and bath. A useful utility area is located off the landing and completes this floor. To the second floor is the fourth bedroom and en-suite.
