

5 St. Leonards Place
York
YO1 7HF

£500,000

A Grade II modern apartment converted from a beautiful period building within the heart of York city centre offering a range of period features with modern facilities.

St Leonard's Place is an iconic building situated within York's cultural heart, being neighbours of the York Theatre Royal, York Art Gallery and York Explore. The development is just steps away from the historic Minster and the vibrancy and vitality of the city centre, with its array of independent shops, national brands, restaurants, coffee shops and amenities. The Museum Gardens lies immediately to the west of the crescent, set in the magnificent surroundings of the ruins of St Mary's Abbey.

A sweeping staircase from the secure communal entrance leads to the apartment on the 2nd floor. The entrance foyer with wooden flooring leads to the open plan dining/kitchen with a range of fitted appliances. The property also has two double bedrooms both with en-suite bath or shower rooms.
