£350,000

4 1

A beautifully presented four bedroom semi-detached bungalow offering flexible living space, set behind a large driveway with parking for multiple vehicles, offered with no onward chain. Situated in the desirable area of Rawcliffe, the property offers excellent local amenities, with access to Clifton Moor for shopping and entertainment, plus great local pubs nearby. Easy access to the A-road towards Leeds and into the city centre via regular bus routes. Enjoy lakeside walks close by, along with the popular local coffee shop, Java bar.

Entering the property, a welcoming hallway with separate shoe storage leads to a modernised family bathroom with a three-piece suite, including both bath and shower. A double bedroom sits to the right.

The heart of the home is a spacious kitchen/dining room with a wood-burning stove, and stairs rising to the dormer level. Beyond, a further hallway with storage leads to a second double bedroom overlooking the garden, and a generous living room with an added conservatory opening onto the garden.

Upstairs, two further bedrooms, one double, one single, complete the accommodation. With four bedrooms in total, the layout offers flexibility: three double bedrooms with a study, or three bedrooms with two reception rooms.

Outside, a single garage and large driveway with planted borders provide ample parking.

Presented well throughout, this home is ready to move into.
