First Floor

As with the ground floor, the first floor retains much of the period charm, including dado rails, doors, architrave, cornicing and fireplaces.

Second Floor

The second floor features two further double bedrooms and a bathroom.

Bedroom four is a well-sized double room with front facing pocket dormer, storage cupboard and access to extensive eaves storage. Bedroom five is also a double room, with a rear-facing dormer window offering a pleasing outlook of the rear garden and those neighbouring. This room also offers access to the eaves storage. Both rooms have been fitted with Velux windows, allowing for further natural light to flood the space.

Completing the second floor is a three-piece shower room comprised of a WC, basin and shower enclosure.

Externally

The front garden is beautifully presented with a variety of shrubs, period dwarf wall to front, block paved pathway to the front door and a separate pathway leading to the gated side access to the rear garden. This complements a handsome double bay façade retaining the original front door bordered by ornate stained glass.

The level rear garden is generous for a property of its type, laid mainly to lawn, with well-stocked borders featuring an array of mature shrubs and trees. Period brick walls with decorative fencing enclose the garden, which, owing to its aspect benefits from sun through much of the day. Completing the rear garden is a patio accessible both from the kitchen and the side access.

Vendor's Comments

"This has been an exceptional family home for us, in a safe area amongst many other families. There is easy access to good schools, numerous bus routes and, of course, the Henleaze and North View high streets, which boast two butchers, a fishmonger, a Waitrose, a pub, two chemists, a bookshop, three gyms, a cinema, and a library.

The house is perfect for entertaining. Additionally, the extra room in the extension has provided a very comfortable home office and a dedicated space for exam revision."
