Upstairs, the home features two well-proportioned double bedrooms, with the master benefiting from an in-built storage cupboard. The family bathroom is also located on this level and provides a good-sized space that could be stylishly updated to suit contemporary living, but currently encompasses a three-piece suite of toilet, sink and bath with shower over.

Externally

Outside, the private rear garden offers a mix of patio and lawn, creating a versatile outdoor area perfect for relaxing, gardening, or hosting friends and family.

Location

Sandwiched between Montpelier, Ashley Down and St. Pauls – St Werburgh's has a distinct character of its own.

Housing in St Werburgh's, Bristol, was largely built in the late 19th and early 20th centuries to accommodate the population growth due to Bristol's industrial expansion. Perhaps the most recognisable example of this is the partially still-standing Brooks Dye Works, which has recently been re-developed into a modern housing development. As a result, the property now boasts a range of Victorian, Edwardian, modern, and unique eco-friendly housing.

Today, St Werburgh's is known for its strong community spirit, eco-friendly initiatives and alternative culture. For families, Fairfield High and St Werburgh's Primary School are highly regarded, and the City Farm is a popular destination.

Food & drink in the area doesn't disappoint either; Better Foods, The Farm, Wiper & True, Namak are just a few of the popular go-to's in the area.

With an array of beautiful homes, popular cafes, pubs, and green spaces – the area has unsurprisingly become a popular destination for families and young professionals wanting to enjoy a central location with real charm.
