Location

Bristol city centre is the heart of Bristol, famous for numerous reasons, packed with something for everyone. Wherever that be the bustling Cabot Circus and Broadmead shopping centres, the many cafes, and restaurants on the harbourside or on Welsh Back, Corn Street or Park Street, or perhaps you prefer the open spaces at the historic Castle Park.

The city centre is also well-known for its street art (home of Banksy!), and entertainment, being home to The Old Vic theatre and the O2 Academy. It's therefore no surprise that the city centre appeals to students, young professionals, and families alike.
