Vendor's Comments

"This is a lovely, bright, practical apartment to live in, in a perfectly central location with everything you could want literally on the doorstep. The beautiful front room window is perfect for people-watching - and the bedroom at the back of the flat is surprisingly quiet at night. We will miss breakfasts at the wonderful cafes in St Nicholas market next door and the Saturday vintage market!"

Summary

The apartment forms part of the sympathetically redeveloped 44 Corn Street - formerly known as Shaftesbury Chambers; a Grade II listed building that boasts a fine period façade, located in the very heart of the city centre.

The development is accessed from street level via a secure gated entrance. You will ascend to the flat via an original stairwell, largely tessellated and retaining a particularly attractive stain glass window to the left elevation.

Entering into the flat, a hallway provides access in turn to each of the rooms.

The living space is a light and bright room benefitting from large triple sash windows to the far elevation, high ceilings and exposed original floorboards. The kitchen is fitted with a range of matching base and wall-mounted units, and comprises an integrated hob, washer/dryer, sink, extractor hood and dishwasher. Cupboards are wood effect and complemented by black worktops. Sat adjacent is a three-piece bathroom comprising white tiling, shower-over-bath, WC and basin.

At the rear of the flat is a well-sized double bedroom that again benefits from good ceiling height and large sash windows that flood the room with natural light.

Offered with no onward chain.

Furthermore, excellent transport links, including frequent bus services, convenient train connections, and well-established cycle routes, make this urban setting exceptionally appealing to a wide spectrum of buyers seeking a well-connected and amenity-rich lifestyle.
