Description

Nestled on the outskirts of the friendly town of Upton-upon-Severn, this lovingly refurbished Georgian residence perfectly merges classic charm with modern family living. Its excellent location places you just a short stroll away from the lively music festival season, making it a wonderful spot for families who enjoy culture and community activities.

The home features two welcoming reception rooms. The bright sitting room, with its beautiful bay window, invites natural light, creating a warm and cheerful atmosphere. The lounge and snug area, enhanced by a cozy log burner, are perfect for family gatherings or quiet movie nights in. An inviting door connects the living room to the dining room, which also enjoys a lovely bay window overlooking the front garden—a delightful backdrop for family meals. Just beyond, you'll find the fitted kitchen, complete with underfloor heating for those chilly mornings.

With four spacious bedrooms, this home provides plenty of room for family living, sleepovers, or hosting friends. Two well-appointed bathrooms ensure that there's ample convenience for everyone. Each room has been thoughtfully decorated, balancing contemporary style with charming period features, making it a cozy sanctuary for all family members.

Step outside to discover a south-facing courtyard garden, an ideal spot for family playtime, sunny afternoons, or entertaining friends with a barbecue. This outdoor space serves as a peaceful retreat, perfect for relaxation or al fresco dining under the stars.

In summary, this Georgian residence in Upton-upon-Severn is a remarkable family home that offers spacious living and a prime location. Whether you're looking for a place to create lasting memories or a stylish retreat, this house is sure to become a beloved family haven. Don't miss the chance to make this wonderful property your own!
