DESCRIPTION

A useful entrance hall welcomes you into the home, which opens into the ground floor accommodation. The good-sized sitting/dining room offers plenty of natural light from the dual aspect windows, with ample space for both comfortable seating and dining. Stairs rise to the first floor, while a door leads through to the kitchen.

The kitchen is positioned towards the rear of the house and provides a practical range of fitted units and work surfaces, with space for the necessary appliances. A door leads from the kitchen to the courtyard garden.

Upstairs, there are two double bedrooms. The principal bedroom is a particularly good size, while the second bedroom provides a useful additional bedroom, guest room or home office. The home is serviced by the family bathroom which comprises contemporary 4-piece suite, with a window to the rear.

Roseleigh further benefits from a part converted attic, which has been boarded, with a skylight, power and lighting. Full conversion can be achieved (subject to the necessary planning consent).

Outside, the home boasts a fully enclosed courtyard garden, with several raised beds and shrubs surrounding, as well as a charming red brick wall. There is gated side access with a right of way over the neighbouring garden.

DIRECTIONS

The property is most easily located by leaving our office in Painswick on the A46 in the direction of Cheltenham. Pass through the traffic lights and Roseleigh can be found as the second of three terraced properties on the left hand side.

LOCATION

Painswick, affectionately known as “The Queen of the Cotswolds”, is one of Gloucestershire’s most sought-after villages. Renowned for its iconic church spire, ninety-nine yew trees and beautiful Cotswold limestone architecture, the village is full of charm, with narrow streets, historic buildings and a welcoming community.

The village offers an excellent range of amenities, including a highly regarded primary school, medical centre, restaurants, public houses, churches and an eclectic selection of independent shops. There is also a golf course and a wealth of recreational opportunities, while Painswick Beacon provides stunning countryside walks and far-reaching views.

The location is particularly convenient for access to Cheltenham, Gloucester, Stroud and the M5, with Bath, Bristol, Swindon and the M4 also within easy reach. Stroud’s mainline railway station provides a regular service to London Paddington, with journey times of around 90 minutes.
