DESCRIPTION

Rose Cottage is an attractive attached Grade II Listed cottage, ideally positioned for access to the excellent amenities of Stroud town.

The property sits at the foot of acres of National Trust Land on Rodborough Common with lovely canal side walks nearby.

Constructed in Cotswold Stone, the ground floor accommodation features a welcoming kitchen/living/dining room, complete with a range of built in units, sociable window seat, fireplace and wood-burning stove, creating a cosy and inviting space.

On the first floor, there is a well-proportioned double bedroom that is currently utilised as a sitting room and a good-sized bathroom with a free standing bath and shower over.

A lovely, vaulted master bedroom, with exposed beams and built in eaves storage, occupies the top floor. The bedroom is also currently utilised as a work space.

To the rear of the cottage, there is a useful garden store with electricity and water, and to the front, a small outdoor area offers a sociable seating area.

Parking is on street, however the current owners have informed us that they are generally able to park to the front of the cottage.
