DESCRIPTION

Oak Folly is approached via a long gravelled private driveway at the end of a quiet no-through road. This substantial family home is beautifully presented throughout offering spacious and flexible accommodation. Its location benefits from being both adjacent to the open countryside whilst also still being part of a close knit community.

A central reception hall on the ground floor leads on one side to the interconnecting sitting room, library and conservatory. With direct access to the garden these open plan rooms are perfect for entertaining. To the other side of the house is the large kitchen/dining room, off which is a useful utility room with rear access and a door to the integral double garage.

Upstairs is the principal bedroom with an en-suite shower room, three further double bedrooms and a family bathroom. The fifth bedroom, located above the garage, is currently being used as a large home office and benefits from an abundance of eaves storage.

The garden is beautifully landscaped with stone paths, different seating areas and well stocked, mature borders. Large perimeter hedges offer privacy and seclusion.

DIRECTIONS

Oak Folly is most easily found by leaving Nailsworth in the direction of Stroud on the Bath Road. Just before reaching The Old Fleece Pub on your right, turn left into Selsley Road. Continue through the double bend and take the next right into Lawns Park. Continue round to the right to the very end of the road and the driveway to the property is directly ahead of you between 2 hedges.

LOCATION

Lawns Park is an attractive cul-de-sac situated almost midway between Nailsworth and Stroud, in the spectacular Woodchester Valley.

The adjoining villages of North and South Woodchester share a post office/store, 2 pubs and a popular, Ofsted rated outstanding, primary school.

Adjacent to unspoilt countryside providing a great source of walks as well as a popular cycle track which runs between Nailsworth and Stroud. Nailsworth is the smaller of these two with an outstanding range of independent retailers, whilst Stroud has five major supermarkets, a cinema, theatre, sports centre and award winning farmer's market.

Stroud main line station has regular direct services to London Paddington circa. 90 minutes and with the M4 and M5 motorways both easily accessible, it is an ideal location for commuters. There is an excellent choice of secondary schools, both in the state and private sectors and also highly regarded grammar schools in Stroud, Gloucester and Cheltenham.
