Elmers House is a welcoming and cosy terraced town house full of period features whilst also offering flexible and well proportioned accommodation.

On the ground floor a useful internal glazed oak porch leads through to a large dual aspect sitting room/dining room. With three sash windows to the front two of which have window seats, this room is filled with natural light. Characterful features include wood panelling, a stone fireplace with wood burning stove and wooden beams. A pretty arched glass door leads out to the rear garden with another door leading to a staircase down to a full-height cellar which offers additional storage or workshop space. To the rear is a good sized kitchen/breakfast room with a range of units, a built in dresser and terracotta tiled floor. This room overlooks the rear garden with an additional side door offering direct access.

From a central hallway spiral stairs lead up to the first floor with a large double bedroom at the rear overlooking the garden, two further bedrooms, one currently used as a home office, to the front and a family bathroom.

On the second floor is the principal bedroom with wonderful exposed wooden beams, plenty of storage and an en-suite shower room.

The enclosed and level rear garden is a real delight with a south-facing aspect and both patio and lawned areas with mature shrubs and borders.

LOCATION

Elmers House is located in the centre of the quintessential Cotswold market town, Minchinhampton. It benefits from a host of local amenities including a popular gastro pub, several cafes, butcher, chemist, a village shop and a sought-after primary school. There is also a new purpose built doctors surgery.

Minchinhampton Common is within easy walking distance and offers over 600 acres of National Trust land, ideal for scenic walks and also host to a popular golf course. The town has a strong sense of community spirit, regularly hosting country fayres, amateur dramatic performances and local society events and is well-known for the cattle that freely graze the common and often frequent the High Street!

One of the key draws to the area is the excellent choice of schools in both the private and state sector. There are numerous sought-after grammar schools in nearby Stroud, Gloucester and Cheltenham and in the private sector, amongst others, Beaudesert Park is less than a five minute drive or easy walk.

Stroud is easily accessible and has several supermarkets, including Waitrose, as well as an award-winning farmer's market, leisure centre and multiplex cinema. Similarly, Nailsworth has a fine selection of independent retailers and restaurants and a Morrisons supermarket.

Trains run into London Paddington from Stroud mainline station, circa 90 minutes. The M5 motorway, junction 13 is also easily reached from Stroud.
