

Kara Lodge 2, Newton Grove, W4
Guide Price £2,250,000

An extremely rare opportunity to acquire this exceptional apartment, offering over 2,300 sq ft of accommodation and featuring a luminous 27'8x19'5 artist's studio with a high vaulted ceiling and a large north window designed to draw in abundant natural light. The studio was created especially for the artist John Charles Dollman by the Bedford Park architect Maurice B. Adams in 1880 and retains many of its original features. This is a significant Grade II listed residence located on this premier street in the heart of the Bedford Park Conservation Area. The accommodation comprises the artist's studio, a conservatory, a fitted kitchen (accessed off the studio) with an additional utility room on the top floor, four double bedrooms, a single bedroom/study, three bathrooms, two balconies and a large west facing communal garden. The apartment is being sold with the freehold of Kara Lodge and benefits from its own private entrance. Newton Grove, which is a premier road in the Bedford Park Conservation Area, is located within a short walk of Turnham Green station, local parks and the extensive shopping, cafe and restaurant facilities on Chiswick High Road and Turnham Green Terrace. Offered for sale with no onward chain.
