A charming two-bedroom period cottage situated on a quiet residential street in the heart of Chiswick, moments from numerous amenities. This attractive freehold property offers well-balanced living space arranged over two floors and includes a hidden, secluded garden!

The ground floor comprises a bright south-facing reception room and a spacious kitchen/dining room, both with wood floors. Upstairs, there are two generously sized double bedrooms, each offering good natural light and fitted wardrobes, and a modern bathroom. Hidden away behind the property is a wonderful secluded garden area measuring 27'6 x 21'8. There is also a small private front garden area designated to the house.

Rothschild Road is a popular tree-lined street located within easy reach of Chiswick High Road, Chiswick Park and South Acton stations and a range of local amenities including parks, cafés and schools. Well-connected yet quietly positioned, the property offers the best of both convenience and calm in a sought-after W4 location. Offered for sale with no onward chain.
