2 Old Smithy View Main Road Eyam

Asking Price

£300,000

Situated in a sought-after position overlooking open fields, this spacious three bedroom first floor apartment offers well-balanced accommodation in a peaceful setting. The property benefits from a superb private south-facing sun terrace, perfect for enjoying the far-reaching views, along with a private garden and off-road parking.

The layout is thoughtfully arranged, making it ideal for a couple, single occupant, or those seeking predominantly single-level living within a vibrant village setting. Light and airy throughout, the accommodation combines practicality with a pleasant outlook, enhancing its appeal as a comfortable home or countryside retreat.

The accommodation includes a ground floor entrance with a wash basin and storage. A staircase ascends to the first floor hallway leading to a dual aspect fitted kitchen with a range of units and appliances, a spacious triple aspect sitting/dining room with access to the seating terrace, a double bedroom with full length wardrobes, a second double bedroom, a bathroom and study with a range of units and desk which could also be utilised as bedroom three.

Located in the historic village of Eyam, the property enjoys a truly special setting. Famous for its role during the Eyam plague quarantine, Eyam is rich in heritage and character, with charming stone cottages, a strong sense of community, and a range of local amenities including a village shop, café, primary school, and traditional pubs. Surrounded by stunning Peak District countryside, the village provides excellent access to scenic walks and nearby market towns.

Offered for sale with vacant possession and no upward chain, the apartment also holds the added advantage of a share of the freehold.
