Guide Price £350,000 to £360,000

Nestled in a central position within the highly sought-after Peak District village of Hathersage, this delightful Grade II Listed two double bedroom mid-terrace cottage offers an idyllic lifestyle surrounded by breathtaking countryside. Available for sale with early vacant possession, the property retains a wealth of lovely original features and enjoys a charming rear landscaped garden and outbuilding.

The inviting sitting room boasts a striking gritstone fireplace with multi-fuel stove, a characterful oak beam to the ceiling and a built-in window seat and a well equipped kitchen with a range of units and appliances.

The first landing showcases an attractive exposed stone wall, enhancing the home's historic appeal. The double bedroom features a recessed wardrobe and central oak beam, while the spacious shower room is well appointed.

The second double bedroom is a true highlight, brimming with character. Exposed beams and an impressive king post roof truss create a stunning focal point, with access to a useful eaves storage cupboard.

To the rear lies a well-stocked and beautifully landscaped cottage garden, offering a peaceful and private retreat. Complemented by two useful stone-built outbuildings, this enchanting outdoor space is ideal for gardening enthusiasts, entertaining, or simply relaxing in tranquil surroundings.

Set in the heart of this very sought-after Peak District village, Hathersage offers excellent local amenities, a convenient train station and immediate access to the glorious open countryside of the Peak District. Renowned for its vibrant community and stunning scenery, it is a truly special place to call home.
