1 Carr Cottages Townhead Eyam

Asking Price

£300,000

Situated within this popular and highly sought-after historic village, this charming three-bedroom end-terrace cottage has been sympathetically and tastefully renovated by the current owners to create a characterful cottage complemented by high-quality modern fittings. Centrally positioned within the heart of Eyam, the property enjoys a prominent setting in one of the Peak District's most famous and picturesque villages, renowned for its rich history, traditional stone architecture, strong community spirit and beautiful surrounding countryside. Eyam is particularly well known for its role during the Great Plague of 1665 and today offers a range of local amenities, welcoming country inns and excellent access to scenic walking routes.

Currently operated as a successful holiday let, with contents available by separate negotiation, the property offers well-presented and thoughtfully arranged accommodation. The interior includes a fitted dining kitchen with a range of modern units and integrated appliances, along with a cosy sitting room featuring a multi-fuel stove that creates a warm and inviting atmosphere.

The first floor provides access to a double bedroom, a stylish bathroom and a further bedroom, while the second floor offers an additional double bedroom, providing flexible living and sleeping space.

To the rear of the property is a small, easily maintained garden, along with two useful storage buildings. Offered to the market with no upward chain, this attractive cottage represents an ideal main residence, holiday home, or investment opportunity in one of Derbyshire's most distinctive and desirable villages.
