Dormy Cottage

Guide Price

£295,000

A Little Gem In An Idyllic Peaceful Village.

A charming two bedroom 18th century character cottage which has been sympathetically restored to retain original period features alongside high quality fittings. Centrally positioned in the pretty Peak District village of Foolow with a quaint duck pond and an excellent traditional country inn. Bordered by spectacular Derbyshire countryside with access to a wealth of outdoor pursuits as well as many adjoining villages. The property is currently run as a successful holiday cottage with majority of the contents available by separate negotiation but is also suited as a main home. Within easy commutable distance of Sheffield, Buxton, Bakewell and Chesterfield.

The beautifully presented accommodation comprises: a delightful sitting room with a gritstone fireplace, exposed beams and a window seat. A bespoke dining kitchen with a range cooker, appliances and a Belfast sink. A ground floor bathroom.

At first floor: a double bedroom and a single bedroom.

To the rear of the property is an easily managed paved seating terrace.

Contents by separate negotiation.

No Upward Chain.
