A deceptively spacious two-three bedroom detached dormer bungalow offering flexible accommodation, attractive gardens, extensive parking and superb potential for further development.

This well presented home briefly comprises: reception hall, fitted kitchen, dining room/bedroom three, spacious living room with feature marble fireplace and patio doors opening onto the rear and side garden.

To the ground floor is a particularly large principal bedroom (originally two bedrooms and easily converted back if desired) together with a luxury wet room/shower room.

To the first floor is a further large double bedroom with dormer window enjoying views towards Blackmoor and an en-suite bathroom with full suite and separate shower.

Outside, the property benefits from a driveway and parking to the front, attractive well stocked side and rear gardens, plus additional access from King Egbert Road leading to further parking, carport and a substantial basement storage/workshop area with excellent potential for studio, home office or further accommodation (subject to consents).

Perfectly positioned on the edge of the Peak District, the property enjoys close proximity to the highly sought-after village of Dore, renowned for its charming semi-rural atmosphere, shops, cafés, traditional pubs and strong sense of community. Dore offers an excellent range of local amenities together with highly regarded schools and beautiful surrounding countryside, making it one of Sheffield's most desirable residential locations. Dore & Totley railway station is also within easy reach, providing convenient direct links to Sheffield, Manchester and beyond, ideal for both commuters and those seeking easy access to the city whilst enjoying a more tranquil lifestyle.
