Charming Ground Floor Apartment with Private Garden & Detached Garage – No Onward Chain

This characterful and spacious ground floor apartment on Fulwood Road offers a rare opportunity to own a home full of period charm, including high ceilings, large windows, and original features throughout. With its own private entrance, detached garage, and exclusive garden, this property combines the elegance of a period home with practical, independent living.

The accommodation briefly comprises:

Welcoming entrance hallway

Generous lounge/dining room featuring a beautiful bay window and feature fireplace

Compact, functional kitchen

Shower room with W.C.

Two well-proportioned double bedrooms

The apartment also presents excellent potential for further development (subject to the necessary management consents), with scope to utilize rooms below the property—something other residents in the building have successfully done.

Allocated parking for one vehicle is included, offering ease and convenience for residents.

Located just a short distance from local hospitals and universities, this home is perfectly situated for professionals or those seeking a well-connected, peaceful base in a desirable part of the city.

A must-see for those seeking period charm, outdoor space, and future potential.
