For sale by Auction on 30 September 2026.
Offered in partnership with BTG Eddisons Auctions

Located in this highly regarded residential suburb towards the South West of Sheffield is this well-proportioned four bedroomed end of terraced home. The house requires a scheme of refurbishment, updating and modernisation but offers plenty of scope.

The property is a former let property but is now available with vacant possession and will appeal to investors, property professionals and residential buyers looking for a renovation project.

No.45 has sealed unit double glazing, gas central heating, an off shot layout, extends over the passageway and also has a rear garden. Original style features such as doors, floors and fireplaces remain to some of the rooms.

Broomhill is a sought after area, close to teaching hospitals and the University, features a wide variety of pubs, restaurants and shops, excellent road and bus links and close to a number of well regarded private and state schools.
