Mere Croft & The Coach House – A Unique Village Retreat in Monyash.

Mere Croft is a beautifully presented detached three-bedroom character home, accompanied by a charming two-bedroom detached coach house, double garage with workshop and generous landscaped gardens. Enjoying an idyllic setting in the heart of Monyash, the property offers commanding views towards the historic church and across the mere, with open countryside on the doorstep.

The picturesque village of Monyash is surrounded by stunning Peak District scenery, with its historic church, traditional pub and vibrant community, the village blends rural peace with excellent access to Bakewell, Buxton and surrounding walking routes.

Sympathetically upgraded by the current owners with attention to detail and original features throughout, Mere Croft offers flexible living space. The ground floor includes a welcoming hallway, a well-fitted breakfast kitchen, a dining room with a feature window framing the view, and a cosy sitting room with parquet flooring and a log burning stove. Also on this level are a double bedroom and a modern shower room.

Upstairs, a spacious landing doubles as a study area with exposed roof trusses. The principal bedroom includes exposed beams, a walk-in dressing room and en-suite. A further double bedroom and bathroom complete the first floor.

The detached Coach House is a successful holiday let, offering a private entrance, breakfast kitchen and a bright sitting room with full-height glazing and double doors. The first floor provides two double bedrooms and a shower room.

Set within attractive landscaped gardens with seating terraces, mature planting and specimen trees, this exceptional property also includes a timber shed and ample driveway parking. A double garage with adjoining workshop.

Mere Croft and The Coach House present a rare opportunity to enjoy village life in one of Derbyshire's most desirable settings.
