Situation.....

Carmelite Road is situated on a small gated development just outside of Aylesford village. The village is a true gem that we can't help but adore! It exudes an incredible community spirit and boasts an array of historic properties and enticing dining spots. Our top pick is The Hengist with its fine dining and instagram worthy cocktails but we also have a soft spot for The Little Gem, a traditional alehouse dating back to the 1100s. There is also The Bush public house which serves food and The Chequers boasts a fantastic riverside courtyard garden. You'll have endless options for scenic strolls, with riverside walks, countryside hikes, and The Friars, an ancient religious house with a cafe, farmers market, and tranquil gardens right on the village's edge. Aylesford boasts a good rated primary school in the centre of the village and an outstanding rated primary just outside the village along with a secondary school in the wider Aylesford area. Shopaholics will relish the proximity of an M&S food store, Sainsbury's, and an Aldi just up the road. Commuters are well-catered too, with London-bound services (changing at Strood) from Aylesford station, while Ebbsfleet International is just 23 minutes away by car, with trains to London St. Pancras in a mere 19 minutes. Plus, both the M2 and M20 motorways are a stone's throw away. And if all that isn't enough, Maidstone's County Town is just 4 miles away, offering a plethora of retail, educational, and recreational facilities.
