What the owner says.....

Cork Street and Eccles will always be a special place to us as it is our first home. We have put a lot of time and effort into making it a home that we have loved living in. Eccles village is a lovely place to live and we are often over the park or the fields with our dog. Our neighbours have become friends and there is always something happening in the village to join in with. The garden is a great spot to spend time with friends and family which has been enjoyed over the years we have lived here. This home has provided us with lots of memories and we hope the next owners love it and Eccles just as much as we do.
