What The Owner Says

For the past seven years I've been lucky enough to call this maisonette my home. When I first viewed the property I was immediately struck by the bright and spacious feel and knew I wanted to live here. It has been a brilliant first home that I will be sad to leave.

Situated away from the road, it feels private and secure. The communal garden stretches from the front and round the side. Due to the unique positioning of the property I've been able to utilise the communal garden and make it an extension of my property. I've installed a clothesline, and in the summer months I have a table and chairs out the front to enjoy a glass of wine at the end of the day.

Snodland is a lovely village to live in, shops, cafes, barbers and lovely walks all accessible by foot. I quickly became a local here and am not looking to move far. We have a Warnett Court WhatsApp group which is really useful.

I hope whoever lives here will be as happy as I have been. It is a brilliant space for me, perfect for entertaining as well as being a sanctuary after a long day at work.
