About this property.....

Tucked away in a no-through road opposite the charming Bush public house in the heart of Aylesford village, this charming two/three-bedroom Victorian cottage beautifully blends period character with thoughtful modern enhancements, and is priced to reflect cosmetic improvement now required.

The cosy sitting room provides a warm and inviting retreat, while the true heart of the home lies to the rear — a sociable open-plan kitchen and dining room, enhanced by a side extension featuring a striking roof lantern and French doors that flood the space with natural light and create a seamless connection to the garden.

The ground floor is completed by a well-appointed bathroom, featuring both a bath and separate shower enclosure.

Upstairs, the first floor offers three bedrooms, with the third accessed via the second, providing excellent flexibility as a child's bedroom, dressing room, or home office.

Externally, the south-westerly facing rear garden enjoys excellent afternoon and evening sun, and further benefits from a useful brick-built former outhouse for storage.

A delightful period home in a highly desirable village setting, offering character, versatility, and excellent natural light throughout, with excellent scope for a purchaser to further enhance and personalise.

Situation.....

Aylesford village is a true gem that we can't help but adore! It exudes an incredible community spirit and boasts an array of historic properties and enticing dining spots. Our top pick is The Hengist with its fine dining and cocktails but we also have a soft spot for The Little Gem, a traditional alehouse dating back to the 1100s. There is also The Bush public house which serves food and The Chequers which is looking for a new owner but boasts a fantastic riverside courtyard garden. You'll have endless options for scenic strolls, with riverside walks, countryside hikes, and The Friars, an ancient religious house with a cafe, farmers market, and tranquil gardens right on the village's edge. Aylesford boasts a good rated primary school in the centre of the village and an outstanding rated primary just outside the village along with a secondary school in the wider Aylesford area. Shopaholics will relish the proximity of an M&S food store, Sainsbury's, and an Aldi just up the road. Commuters are well-catered too, with London-bound services (changing at Strood) from Aylesford station, while Ebbsfleet International is just 23 minutes away by car, with trains to London St. Pancras in a mere 19 minutes. Plus, both the M2 and M20 motorways are a stone's throw away. And if all that isn't enough, Maidstone's County Town is just 4 miles away, offering a plethora of retail, educational, and recreational facilities.

What the owner says.....

We've genuinely loved living here. The village has such a lovely feel; quiet and peaceful, but still friendly and sociable and having countryside walks and the river right on the doorstep has been a luxury. At the same time, you can be on the motorway or heading towards London in minutes, which has made life really easy.

The house itself has always felt full of character. The front room is cosy and comfortable, but the kitchen and dining space is where we've spent most of our time. It's such a bright area with the roof lantern and doors out to the garden, especially in the afternoons when the sun comes through. The garden has always been great in the summer, catching the evening light.

It's been a very happy home for us and we'll really miss living here.
