Situation.....

Aylesford village is a true gem that we can't help but adore! It exudes an incredible community spirit and boasts an array of historic properties and enticing dining spots. Our top pick is The Hengist with its fine dining and cocktails but we also have a soft spot for The Little Gem, a traditional alehouse dating back to the 1100s. There is also The Bush public house which serves food and The Chequers which is looking for a new owner but boasts a fantastic riverside courtyard garden. You'll have endless options for scenic strolls, with riverside walks, countryside hikes, and The Friars, an ancient religious house with a cafe, farmers market, and tranquil gardens right on the village's edge. Aylesford boasts a good rated primary school in the centre of the village and an outstanding rated primary just outside the village along with a secondary school in the wider Aylesford area. Shopaholics will relish the proximity of an M&S food store, Sainsbury's, and an Aldi just up the road. Commuters are well-catered too, with London-bound services (changing at Strood) from Aylesford station, while Ebbsfleet International is just 23 minutes away by car, with trains to London St. Pancras in a mere 19 minutes. Plus, both the M2 and M20 motorways are a stone's throw away. And if all that isn't enough, Maidstone's County Town is just 4 miles away, offering a plethora of retail, educational, and recreational facilities.

What the owner says.....

I knew 20 Forstal Road was the one for me immediately. An unloved auction property, in a beautiful village, with bags of potential and I'd come to find out the most amazing neighbours. All the character had been stripped out of it but there was glimmers of what could be. Months of hard work went into taking it from an empty shell to giving it back some of the personality and charm it should always have had. I'll miss the way the sun floods the front of the house in the morning, waking up looking over the rooftops of the houses opposite, summer evenings in the garden, picnics by the river and how peaceful it feels, even with being so close to an abundance of amenities. I'll forever remember how beautiful the living room looks at Christmas with the decorations up and fire roaring.

My chapter with the house is over now, I've created so many amazing memories there but its story has just started. I'm excited to pass it onto someone who will love it as I have but who has the vision to make it into their dream home.
