Situation.....

The property is situated in a tucked away location between the river and the train station. The nearby Aylesford village is a true gem that exudes an incredible community spirit and boasts an array of historic properties and enticing dining spots. Our top pick is The Hengist restaurant and cocktail bar with a delightful al-fresco terrace. For a more traditional experience, The Chequers is a pub that serves food and boasts a stunning riverside terrace. Alternatively, you can indulge in light bites at The Village Pantry or grab a pint and some pub grub at The Bush.

You'll have endless options for scenic strolls, with riverside walks, countryside hikes, and The Friars, an ancient religious house with a cafe, farmers market, and tranquil gardens right on the village's edge. Aylesford boasts a good rated primary school in the centre of the village and an outstanding rated primary just outside the village along with a secondary school in the wider Aylesford area. Shopaholics will relish the proximity of an M&S food store, Sainsbury's, and an Aldi just up the road.

Commuters are well-catered to, with London-bound services (changing at Strood) from Aylesford station, while Ebbsfleet International is just 23 minutes away by car, with trains to London St. Pancras in a mere 19 minutes. Plus, both the M2 and M20 motorways are a stone's throw away. And if all that isn't enough, Maidstone's County Town is just 4 miles away, offering a plethora of retail, educational, and recreational facilities.
