Guide Price £325,000

About this property.....

Believed to date back to the late Victorian era, this charming timber-framed bungalow offers an increasingly rare opportunity in Eccles village. Set on a PLOT OF APPROXIMATELY 0.18 ACRES, the property provides plenty of scope for modernisation, redevelopment, or POTENTIAL FURTHER DEVELOPMENT subject to the necessary consents.

The accommodation currently comprises a sitting room, dining room, kitchen, bedroom and bathroom. Externally, there is a garage and driveway providing off-road parking, along with gardens to the front and rear.

Whilst the property appears to have been well maintained, prospective purchasers should note that it may be difficult to obtain a standard mortgage due to the nature of the construction. As such, it may particularly appeal to cash buyers seeking a character project to renovate to their own specification, or to DEVELOPERS CONSIDERING A KNOCK DOWN AND REBUILD OPPORTUNITY.

It is also considered that the rear garden may offer potential for an ADDITIONAL DWELLING, as several neighbouring properties on similar-sized plots have achieved.

We are inviting interested parties to view and submit expressions of interest following an initial fixed marketing period ending at noon on Wednesday 3rd December.
