A superbly presented detached residence that blends refined character with contemporary sophistication. This remarkable family home has been expertly remodelled and sympathetically enhanced to an exceptional standard, offering an elegant and high spec living environment that retains its period essence. The finish is of outstanding quality, featuring everything from smart app-controlled underfloor heating and stunning imported granite worktops to premium acoustic double glazing and a Worcester boiler with pressurised cylinder system.

Upon entering, you're welcomed by a spacious entrance hall laid with Porcelanosa tiles and boasting a feature staircase with concealed under stairs storage. The layout is ideal for modern living, with access to both principal reception rooms, a high end ground floor WC, and a well appointed utility room. To one side, the cinema room offers an adaptable space, ideal as a home office, snug, or playroom. To the other side, the open plan lounge and sitting room flow beautifully into the showstopping kitchen and dining area. Designed with entertaining in mind, this space is illuminated by a striking roof lantern and enhanced by dual corner set bi-fold doors, creating a seamless connection to the generous rear terrace and garden. The kitchen itself features a flawless combination of wall, base, and full height cabinetry, anchored by a statement central island with breakfast bar. With top tier appliances and imported granite worktops, the kitchen is both stunning and practical.

The first floor continues to impress, with a generous landing leading to four bedrooms and a beautifully styled family bathroom. The master bedroom is a standout, complete with a luxurious en suite, bay window, and electric curtains all controlled remotely or via app. The remaining bedrooms are well-sized and share a chic family bathroom enhanced with quality fixtures and stylish tiling.

LOCATION

The property is positioned on the quiet, historic section of Sealand Road, offering a rural feel while being just 10 minutes by car from Chester city centre and 8 minutes from Greyhound Retail Park. Local bus links run from the end of the road, and you're within a 35-minute drive to both Liverpool and Manchester Airports.
