Newton House is a substantial detached family home within easy walking distance of the many and varied artisan shops in the ever popular market place in Olney. The property is also located in close proximity to all the sporting and leisure facilities available in the towns extensive recreation grounds.

This fine dwelling stands extremely well within the curtilage of a low level stone wall and expresses its individuality having an impressive frontage dressed with timber detailing and sectors of herring bone brickwork. The accommodation comprises: Large reception vestibule, Cloakroom, Sitting room with an inglenook fireplace, Dining room/family room, Kitchen/breakfast room, Utility room, Generously proportioned master bedroom with an en suite bathroom, Guest bedroom with an en suite shower room, Three further bedrooms, Family bathroom, Double garage and enclosed well screened gardens of a good size.

Property walk through

Approach the solid wooden entrance door which opens into a spacious reception vestibule with a centrally located quarter turn staircase rising to the first floor and its attractive minstrel gallery on the landing. There is a cloakroom in this reception area and doors off to all the principal rooms. Double wooden doors open into the elegant sitting room with its grand inglenook fireplace formed by brick piers supporting an exposed bressummer beam. Two discreet windows within the fireplace allow natural light, though there is also electric lighting for subtle evening illumination. The inglenook is a proper working fire with a paved internal hearth. The sitting room enjoys views over and double door access to the garden at the rear whilst also having a distinctive walk in window bay at the front. A second reception room, flexible in use, could be used as either a dining room, family snug or children's playroom. The kitchen/breakfast room was formerly two rooms but has been opened through to form a delightful space ideal for entertaining or congregating as a family. Integrated within the kitchen are a full height fridge, individual freezer, dishwasher and oven with an extractor hood over. "French" doors access directly into the garden. The utility room alongside has a built in sink unit, housing for a washing machine and space for a tumble dryer and a wall mounted gas boiler.

On the first floor there are five bedrooms, a large and well fitted master bedroom with a comprehensive range of built in wardrobes and an en suite bathroom with power shower attachments and a glazed screen. A guest bathroom has an en suite shower cubicle and the three additional bedrooms could all accommodate a double bed. The family bathroom comprises a four piece suite of WC, washbasin, panelled bath and shower cubicle.

Outside

A small area of shared driveway leads to a blocked paved driveway affording access to a double width garage and providing parking for additional vehicles. The garden to the front is protected by hedging which protects three normally prolific pear trees. Gated side access leads to a private and secluded west facing garden at the rear. The garden has a large paved terrace to accommodate tables and chairs. A mature leylandii hedge and conveniently placed lime trees on the boundaries make this a very private garden which is predominantly lawned with colourful planting to the borders. A plum tree and Wendy house/garden store are also located at the rear.
