A characterful stone cottage in the town's conservation area and within close proximity to the centre of Olney, with the enormous advantage of being able to provide off road parking for two cars on a nearby privately owned portion of land. Formerly two cottages, combined some 40 years ago, the accommodation now provides four bedrooms with an enclosed garden to the rear.

The accommodation more fully comprises: entrance porch, two reception rooms, kitchen/breakfast room, utility and cloakroom, four bedrooms, attic conversion to hobby or homeworking room, two bathrooms, gas central heating. .

Property walk through

Open the part glazed door to enter the porch, which has a useful recessed area for cloaks. An internal leaded light stained glass window offers an attractive feature. The porch opens into one of the two reception rooms, this one having a feature of exposed stonework to the walls and a fireplace in situ, though currently unused. Walk through the connecting doorway to the second sitting room which has a functional fireplace with an attractive brick arch. The fireplace is mounted over a paved hearth. Inner halls connect the sitting rooms to the kitchen/breakfast room. The well fitted kitchen has built in ovens, a microwave, and five ring gas hob with an extractor over. There are a good range of cabinets arranged to base and high levels, additionally a pantry cupboard giving increased storage. Flooring is in quarry tile and there is a stable door to the garden. A door leads to a utility room and cloakroom.

The first floor has access from two staircases, though one is presently unused. On the first floor, there are four bedrooms, all of which are well proportioned and could accommodate a family with ease. A bathroom and a shower room are also available on this landing with a staircase rising to an attic conversion, flexible in use, though could be either a hobby room, homeworking facility or children's games room.

Outside

A gated passageway to the side allows access to the rear of the property and its garden. The garden is private and enclosed with a paved area and planting.
