Property description

The accommodation in detail:

The dining hall has a splendid focal point having a magnificent inglenook fireplace. Additional period features are exposed ceiling beams and deep silled windows. The windows to the front and rear elevation are double glazed. Interesting alcoves and wooden flooring maintain the character of this room. A latch door opens to the sitting room and a walkway which leads through to the kitchen breakfast room. A staircase rises to the first floor landing.

The kitchen is fitted with a range of base and eyelevel units incorporating a single bowl single drain sink unit with mixer taps over and cupboards under. There is plumbing and space for a dishwasher and washing machine. There is a built-in fridge and freezer, built-in oven, hob and extractor fan. central Island and breakfast bar. Doors to the side elevation and bathroom. Exposed ceiling beams and stone walling. Ceiling lighting.

The bathroom is partitioned into 2 rooms, the first being a walk-in area with wall mounted sink unit with cupboards under. Further doorway leads to the main area of the bathroom having a roll top bath with shower attachments mounted over ball and claw pedestals and low-level WC.

First floor

Once on the landing wooden latch doors open to the bedrooms which have exposed ceiling beams, deep silled double glazed windows and wooden flooring. Bedroom one is a good size double bedroom.

Bedroom two is also a good size double bedroom with loft access and an airing cupboard housing a new electric boiler.

Outside

The front gardens have been attractively landscaped to offer a low maintenance style front garden with a block paved patio creating an outside dining area with external lighting. A footpath leads to the front door and storm porch. There is pedestrian access around the side.

The rear gardens are enclosed by timber fencing and a brick wall. The rear garden is predominantly hard landscaped which requires minimal maintenance and is stocked with various flowers and shrubs. This garden offers a fair degree of privacy and seclusion.
