34 Ashover Road

Old Tupton, Chesterfield, S42 6HJ

Set along one of Old Tupton's most sought-after roads, this beautifully styled stone cottage is a little slice of countryside living, full of character, warmth and considered design.

Behind its traditional stone façade is a home that feels every bit as good as it looks. Arranged over three storeys and offering 1,033 sq ft of accommodation, the interiors balance cottage charm with a cool, contemporary edge.

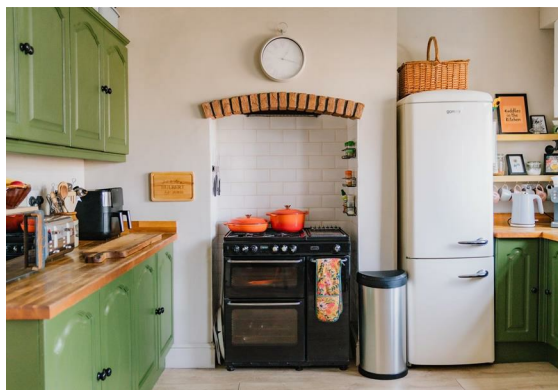

At the heart of the home is a characterful dining kitchen, while the cosy family lounge is centred around a log-burning stove, exactly the sort of room you want to retreat to on a winter evening. Upstairs are two individually styled, generous bedrooms and a beautifully finished bathroom, with the recently converted loft providing an additional occasional space tucked away at the top of the house.

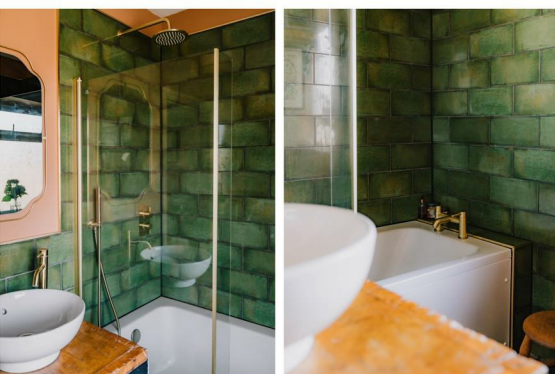

Outside is just as special. A private driveway provides off road parking, while the rear garden has been thoughtfully landscaped to create a wonderfully peaceful escape. A stone-flagged terrace provides the perfect spot for slow mornings, summer evenings and drinks in the sun, surrounded by a garden that feels private, established and wonderfully tranquil.

Cute without being twee, stylish without trying too hard, this is a cottage that captures the countryside dream beautifully.
