Box Farm Northhedge Lane

Tupton, Chesterfield, S42 6AZ

Set within approximately five acres of rolling Derbyshire countryside and recognised as one of the county's top 25 most beautiful homes, Box Farm is a truly exceptional residence, offering a rare combination of space, privacy and lifestyle. Tucked away within the idyllic hamlet of Press, perfectly positioned between the market towns of Chesterfield and Matlock, the setting is nothing short of spectacular—surrounded by open countryside and an abundance of scenic walks directly from the doorstep.

Beyond its striking approach, the home reveals a wealth of beautifully appointed accommodation, blending character and craftsmanship with a sense of scale. Four elegant reception rooms provide versatile living and entertaining space, while at the heart of the home sits a stunning bespoke solid oak kitchen, complete with marble worktops and integrated appliances—designed as both a functional space and a true focal point.

The first floor continues to impress, offering four generous double bedrooms, including a standout principal suite with dressing room and en-suite bathroom. In total, the property benefits from three bathrooms, two of which are en-suite, all finished to a high standard.

The grounds are equally as impressive as the home itself. Extending to around five acres, they have been thoughtfully arranged to offer both lifestyle and practicality, featuring mature landscaped gardens, a long sweeping gated driveway, and well-equipped equestrian facilities including a ménage and three stables. A separate gated access leads to a beautifully presented secondary dwelling, offering potential for a successful holiday cottage, offering excellent income potential or multi-generational living.

Box Farm is a home of true distinction—combining countryside tranquility, architectural quality and lifestyle flexibility in one of Derbyshire's most sought-after rural settings.
