£500,000 (Offers over) Occupying one of Matlock's most enviable positions, directly overlooking Bailey's Tump, a protected hilltop green space rich in local history and once home to a World War II Royal Observer Corps post, this beautifully presented detached bungalow enjoys uninterrupted panoramic views across the Derwent Valley towards the iconic silhouette of Riber Castle. It's a setting that feels wonderfully peaceful, yet places the very best of Matlock quite literally on your doorstep.
