Millstones Main Road

Wadshelf, Chesterfield, S42 7BX

Character, light and considered design, surrounded by 3.4 acres of beautiful countryside. Millstone is rural living done beautifully.

There is something incredibly special about Millstones. A beautifully reimagined barn where original character meets interior-led design, the house enjoys an exceptional countryside setting quite literally moments from the Peak District National Park, yet remains wonderfully connected to Chesterfield and Sheffield.

For a barn, the natural light is remarkable. Large openings draw daylight deep into the house, creating interiors that feel bright, warm and wonderfully inviting, while an interior designer's eye has brought together texture, colour and character to create spaces that feel stylish without ever losing the building's rural soul.

Outside is where the lifestyle really comes into its own. Approximately 3.4 acres of predominantly level land open out behind the house, with far-reaching views across the surrounding countryside. For equestrian buyers, the setup is already here: three standard stables, a mare and foal stable, tack room and dedicated stable yard with water and electricity.

This is a home for muddy boots by the door, horses at the bottom of the garden, summer evenings in the hot tub and winter nights around the fire.

And importantly, it doesn't ask you to choose between the countryside and convenience. Horses at home. The Peak District on your doorstep. Chesterfield and Sheffield within easy reach.

Millstones manages to combine the escapism of rural life with the practicality of the real world, and does it with an exceptional amount of style.
