This secluded cottage, steeped in character and history dating in part back to 1681, offers a perfect blend of period charm and modern comfort. The beautifully presented semi-detached home features three well-proportioned bedrooms, making it ideal for families or anyone seeking extra space.

The ground floor includes two welcoming reception rooms: a bright sitting room filled with natural light, and a cosy dining room with a striking stone-built fireplace—perfect for relaxed evenings or hosting guests. At the rear, a stylish kitchen offers space for a small breakfast table and enjoys a pleasant view over the garden. A separate utility room adds further convenience to daily living. Upstairs, the modern bathroom is a standout feature, complete with a vaulted ceiling and skylight that enhance the sense of space and light. All three bedrooms are generously sized, with built-in storage and a bright landing that adds to the home's airy feel.

Outside, the picturesque cottage garden is filled with colourful flowers and mature shrubs, providing a peaceful and private setting for relaxation or entertaining. A well-designed garden office offers a quiet and comfortable workspace for those working from home. The garden pod also has an integrated storage section. The door is next to the side small window and then it runs the full width of the pod. The internal space is approximately 3.5m squared

Within walking distance of Nailsea town centre and just a 20 to 30-minute drive from Bristol city centre, this charming property presents a rare opportunity to own a historic home in a welcoming and well-connected community.

A charming cottage blending character and modern comforts, with a garden office and walking distance to Nailsea town centre.
