Situated in a highly sought-after location just moments from the Salthouse Fields and Marine Lake, this traditional 1930s home offers a fantastic opportunity for those looking to create a superb family residence. The property has been well-maintained yet offers great potential to extend or modernise, allowing a new owner to put their own stamp on a classic home in a prime coastal setting.

Inside, the accommodation currently provides a welcoming hallway leading to the principal living spaces. A formal living room to the front enjoys a bay window and feature fireplace, while a separate formal dining room sits adjacent to the kitchen, complete with double doors to the gardens and another feature fireplace. The kitchen benefits from an adjoining pantry and connects to a modern conservatory addition. On the first floor, it is important to note that one of the bathrooms was formerly the third bedroom; this could easily be reinstated by a new owner to return the home to its original three-bedroom configuration.

Outside, the property is set behind a lovely gated front garden featuring a beautiful, established wisteria. The rear gardens are a real delight, enjoying a sunny, westerly-facing aspect that captures the best of the afternoon and evening sun. A large patio area provides the perfect spot for alfresco dining, leading onto a level lawn. The garden is further enhanced by a large ornamental pond with a waterfall to one side, while a pergola and timber deck to the other offer a tranquil space to relax.

Ideally located for those who enjoy the outdoors, the home is perfectly placed for easy access to the seafront promenade and the various amenities of the town. This property is offered to the market with no onward chain.

A charming 1930s home with a generous west-facing garden, ideally situated within a short stroll of Clevedon's iconic seafront and Marine Lake
